Important note regarding renewals

We appreciate that businesses change over time and the package that was suitable for you when you last made an order with us may not necessarily be the most suitable package for your business now. We therefore offer the most suitable package for your business now at renewal, which therefore may have a different product or service or a different set of search results to those previously ordered. If this is the case, your new order, additional order or renewal of order will be clarified within the recorded confirmation call that we make with you and within your electronic agreement that we send to you following your order
